SWEET POTATO PIE

2014 2015 CROCKETT THEATRE

Sweet Potato Pie has been entertaining audiences for over a decade with their classy blend of Americana, Bluegrass, Country and Gospel music mixed together in a style they call "sweetgrass". Radio and TV are well acquainted with their "angelic" vocals from appearances on PBS, the Food Network and worldwide radio broadcasts. Hailed as the "Lennon Sisters of Bluegrass", their show revolves around their beautiful 3-part harmonies, hard driving instrumentals and down home humor.

CROCKETT THEATRE

Based in Franklin, Tennessee, Music City Strings was established in 2005. The group consists of violin students ranging in age from 4 to 18. At the heart of Music City Strings is a method of instruction which strives to develop children with beautiful hearts through the gift of music. These children have shared their joy of music for audiences all over Middle Tennessee. Some of their performances include "Dickens of a Christmas", Williamson County Fair and Rodeo, nursing homes, cancer clinics, the Vanderbilt ALS clinic and many more.

CONNYE FLORANCE

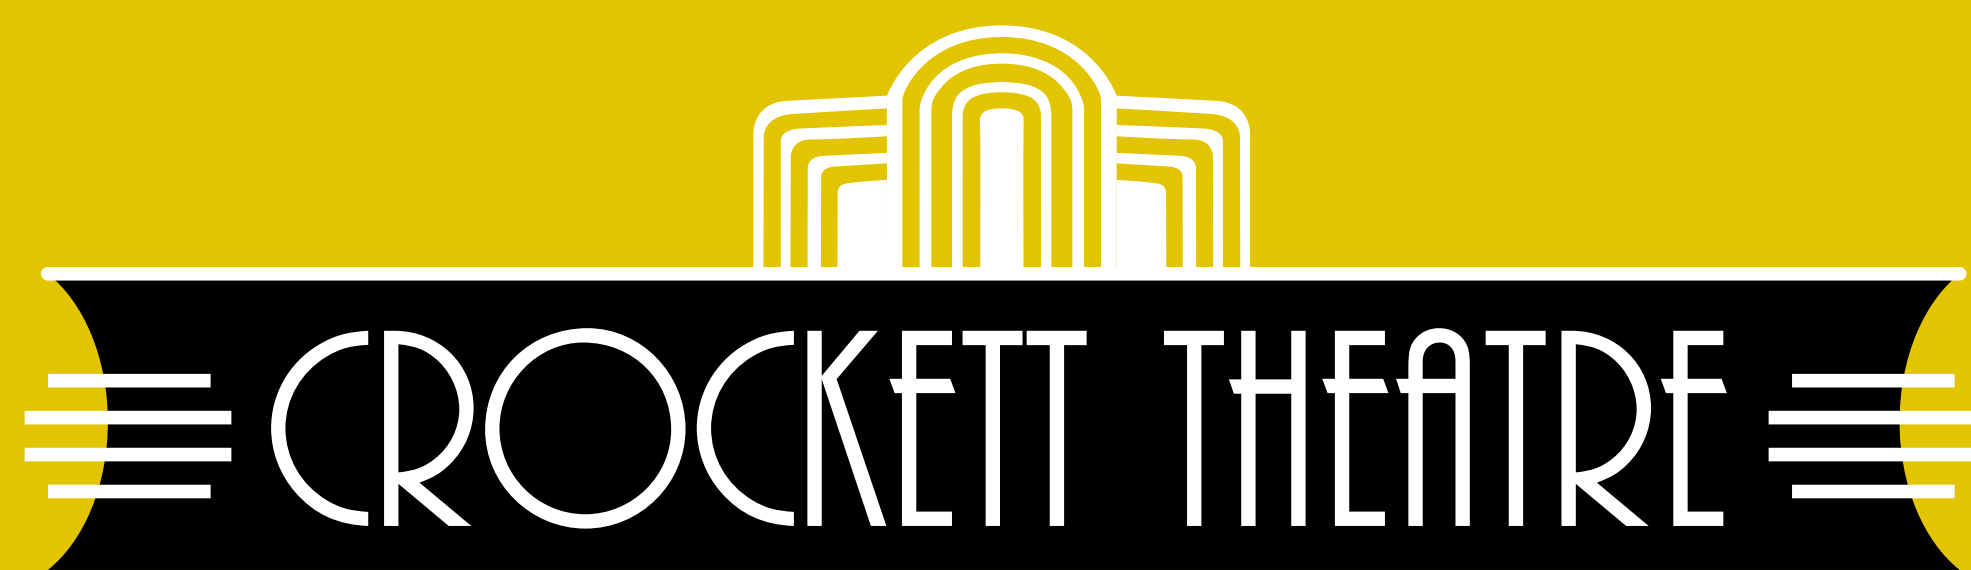

2014 2015 CROCKETT THEATRE

Connye Florance is an award-winning vocalist--BET Jazz Vocalist of The Year, Nashville Jazz Workshop Heritage Award--and dynamic actress with career credits including stage, studio and screen. She is a purveyor of the Great American Songbook who has been compared to Dinah Washington, Nancy Wilson, Carmen McRae, and Billie Holiday. But Connye's style is all her own. Her warm tone, unerring pitch, and easy command of the material set her apart. She sings with both elegance and authority, inviting her audience in and making them feel at home.

JOHN ENGLAND & THE WESTERN SWINGERS

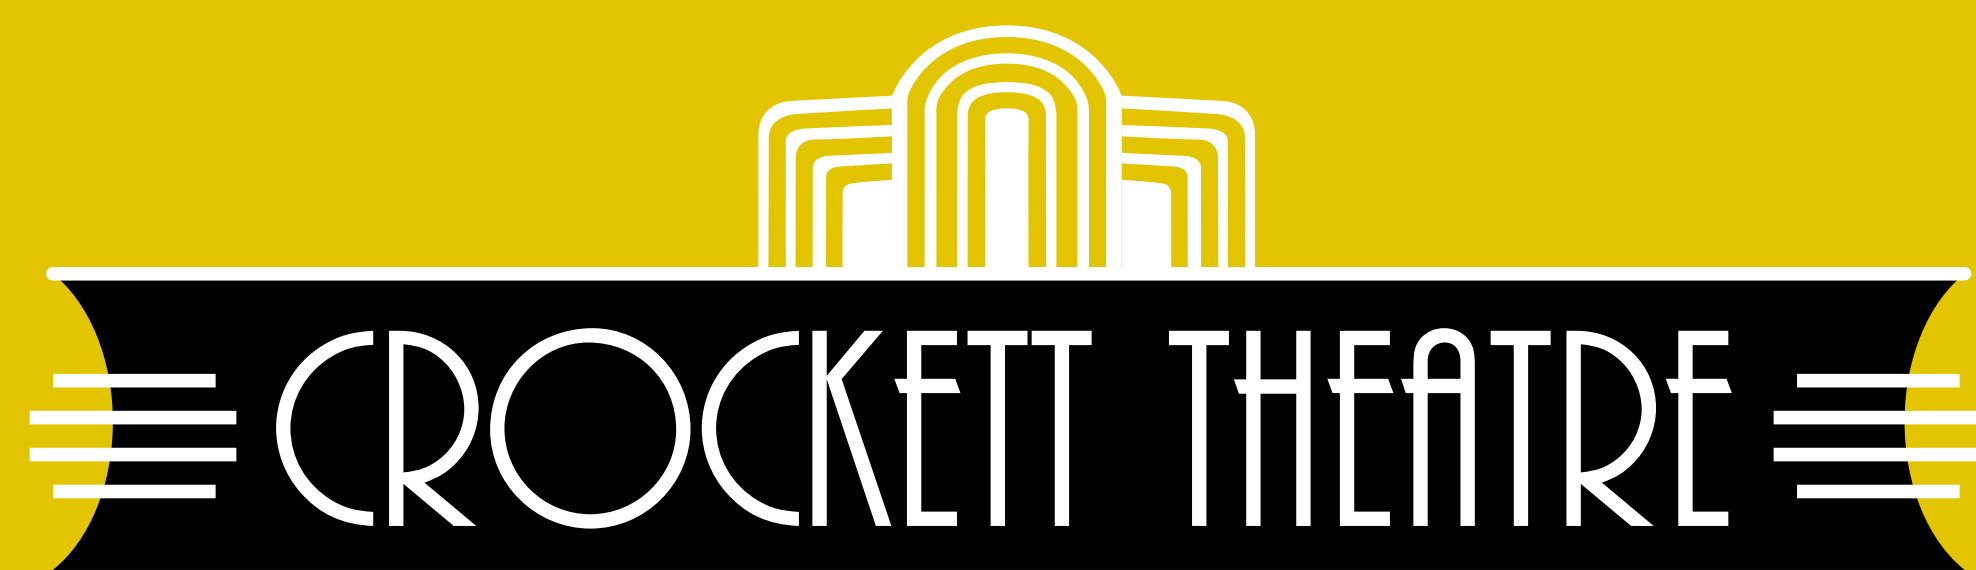

2014 2015 CROCKETT THEATRE

John England & the Western Swingers is a six piece band based in Nashville, TN, which plays the lively, happy music called Western Swing. Western Swing originally developed in Texas and Oklahoma during the 1930's. With fiddle, steel guitar, piano, electric guitar, bass, and drums, it's music for dancing and listening, and combines the down-home quality of country music with the sophistication and improvisation of hot jazz.
