WELCOME!

Lawrenceburg's art deco Crockett Theatre was built in 1950, complete with a custom-laid terrazzo lobby floor, and is one of the few theatres from this era still operating in the United States. It is listed on the National Historic Registry and has been lovingly refurbished by the Crockett Theatre Board.

Groups such as The Singing Carter Family with Mother Maybelle and the Carter girls have graced its stage. Reel-to-reel features such as Gone with the Wind, Smokey and the Bandit, and Elvis movies have entertained full houses. Many a child growing up in Lawrenceburg fondly remembers being on stage at the Theatre for dance recitals, band competitions, and other community events. Today, the stage is named to honor the work of Emmy Award-winning actor Michael Jeter, a native of Lawrenceburg, TN. It is actively used for performances and conferences.

Come to historic downtown Lawrenceburg to enjoy your choice of arts and events, then browse the Square for antique shops, stores, and restaurants that you won't find anywhere else!

Note: Both the Crockett Theatre and the Creative Arts Center may be reserved for special events and receptions*

Each year, the Creative Arts Center, the Theatre Board, and the Chamber of Commerce collaborate to arrange a series of special musical performances to please every palate! The lineup often includes the Nashville Symphony Orchestra and has featured the Tommy Dorsey Orchestra, the Peasall Sisters, and many more talented performers. The Theatre was recently the site of a program honoring the work of Hollywood actor and Lawrenceburg native Michael Jeter.

Lawrenceburg has an active and talented Community Theatre Group that produces plays throughout the year, including a Christmas play.

CROCKETT THEATRE 2018-2019 PERFORMANCE SERIES

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 18TH 7:00PM 7 Bridges - Farewell Tour

7 Bridges is the Ultimate EAGLES Experience. A stunningly accurate tribute to the music of The Eagles. 7 Bridges faithfully re-creates the experience of an Eagles concert from the band's most prolific periods. 7 Bridges has been the 'go to' choice for corporate, fair/festival, casino and private events. The band provides an all ages, family friendly show weaved into a powerful rock-n-roll concert experience. A typical concert of 7 Bridges will include fan favorites of The Eagles such as tunes like Heartache Tonight, Victim of Love, Life's Been Good, Can't Tell You Why, Witchy Woman, Get Over It, One of These Nights, Walk Away, Funk 49, Hotel California, Heavy Metal, Take it to the Limit, 7 Bridges Road, In the City, Fast Lane, Desperado, Rocky Mountain Way, Take it Easy, Already Gone. The perfect entertainment package!

THURSDAY, DECEMBER 13TH 7:00PM A Christmas Show With James Gordon Freeze and the Kellys

James Gordon Freeze is a native of Lawrenceburg, Tennessee, (the birthplace of Southern Gospel Music). The first twenty years of his career was spent as either a drummer, pianist, bass guitarist or vocalist for some of the Legends of Gospel Music. In 2016, he was inducted into the Gospel Music Hall of Fame, (Nashville), due to his work with Rex Nelon & The Nelons. He continues to be a producer for his own independent record company, Oasis Records & Productions. He is also a partner in music publishing with Music by Oasis/BMI. Long time member of the Nashville Musicians Association and American Federation of Musicians since 1969.

The Kellys began singing in 1959 as a family of two brothers, Jim and Sonny, and their wives, Ruth and Minnie Paul. The Kellys got their touring start by singing at home around the area until a gentleman from Franklin, TN invited them to sing at his church. They booked seven singings at other churches from that one evening, and the Kelleys have been touring ever since. An all male quartet for the past 21 years, their powerful voices will blow you away.

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 7TH 7:00PM The Swon Brothers

From Muskogee, OK, Zach and Colton Swon first came to national attention through Season 4 of the Voice, though they've been performing since they could walk. Originally debuting in their parents' Gospel show, the two have a wide performance range.

Their modern country music is heartfelt and upbeat, influenced by their lives and inspirations. Crisp, standout vocals, heartfelt music, and tight harmonies are a hallmark of this diverse and impressive duo, and their soulful approach to modern country has charmed audiences around the world.

THURSDAY, APRIL 11TH 7:00PM Robin Grant and The Standard

A native of Chattanooga TN, Robin has been delighting local audiences for many years. With the recent release of her first critically acclaimed CD, 'Good Girls' she is now garnering national acclaim.

Robin's soulful stylings may take her listeners back to the great Tinpan Alley days of the 1920's 30's and 40's, but it's with an edgy delivery and sizzle that resonates with the youthful in body & spirit. Her live shows showcase her flaming vocals throughout her diverse repertoire of all-time-favorites mixed with her popular original compositions.

Robin's meticulously phrased singing and controlled but inescapable intensity is supported by her talented band, The Standard. Over and over they have proven their ability to captivate and move any audience.
