

PERFORMANCE SERIES 2023-2024

PRIVATE EYES

THURS., SEPTEMBER 14

7:00 PM

Private Eyes, a Tribute to Daryl Hall & John Oates, was formed in 2018. Delivering the timeless music from the best-selling duo of all time, this Los Angeles-based band is the only Hall & Oates tribute to feature sonically accurate renditions of all the greatest hits as well as some choice fan favorites. As a seven-piece band composed of LA's finest players, they pride themselves on delivering pristine vocal harmonies, a rhythm section filled with show-stopping dynamics and the sexiest of sax work to weave its way through any venue. You'll feel that you're listening to the original recordings as frontman Mark Wilson delivers the subtle nuances and emotion of Daryl Hall's iconic vocal signature. Co-frontman Nathan Beausoleil captures the infectious passion within John Oates' harmony vocals, driving guitar parts as well as crowd pleasing stagecraft.

All the hits from Philly's finest rock and soul duo are delivered in either 75, 90, or 120 minute sets guaranteed to strike a chord with audiences of any age, featuring classics like "You Make My Dreams (Come True)," "Maneater," "Rich Girl," and "Kiss On My List" to the timeless balladry of epics "She's Gone," "Sara Smile" and "Every Time You Go Away" to mega-hits such as "I Can't Go For That (No Can Do)," and "Out Of Touch". No matter the size of the venue or age of the crowd, Private Eyes brings audiences to their feet wanting more.

The band is currently booking Performing Arts Centers, theaters, resorts, fairs, festivals, clubs, casinos, and private events worldwide.

Lawrenceburg's art deco Crockett Theatre was built in 1950, complete with a custom-laid terrazzo lobby floor, and is one of the few theatres from this era still operating in the United States. It is listed on the National Historic Registry and has been lovingly refurbished by the Crockett Theatre Board. Groups such as The Singing Carter Family with Mother Maybelle and the Carter girls have graced its stage. Reel-to-reel features such as Gone with the Wind, Smokey and the Bandit, and Elvis movies have entertained full houses. Many a child growing up in Lawrenceburg fondly remembers being on stage at the Theatre for dance recitals, band competitions, and other community events. Today, the stage is named to honor the work of Emmy Award-winning actor Michael Jeter, a native of Lawrenceburg, TN. It is actively used for performances and conferences. Come to historic downtown Lawrenceburg to enjoy your choice of arts and events, then browse the square for antique shops, stores, and restaurants that you won't find anywhere else! Each year, the Creative Arts Center, the Crockett Performance & Visual Arts Society, and the Chamber of Commerce collaborate to arrange a series of special musical performances to please every palate! The lineup has included the Nashville Symphony Orchestra and has featured the Glenn Miller Orchestra, the Fisk Jubilee Singers, and was home to "Christmas Pops" for 32 years. Lawrenceburg has an active and talented Community Theatre Group that produces plays throughout the year.
