JASON COLEMAN

THE PIANO MAGIC
OF FLOYD CRAMER

2015 2016

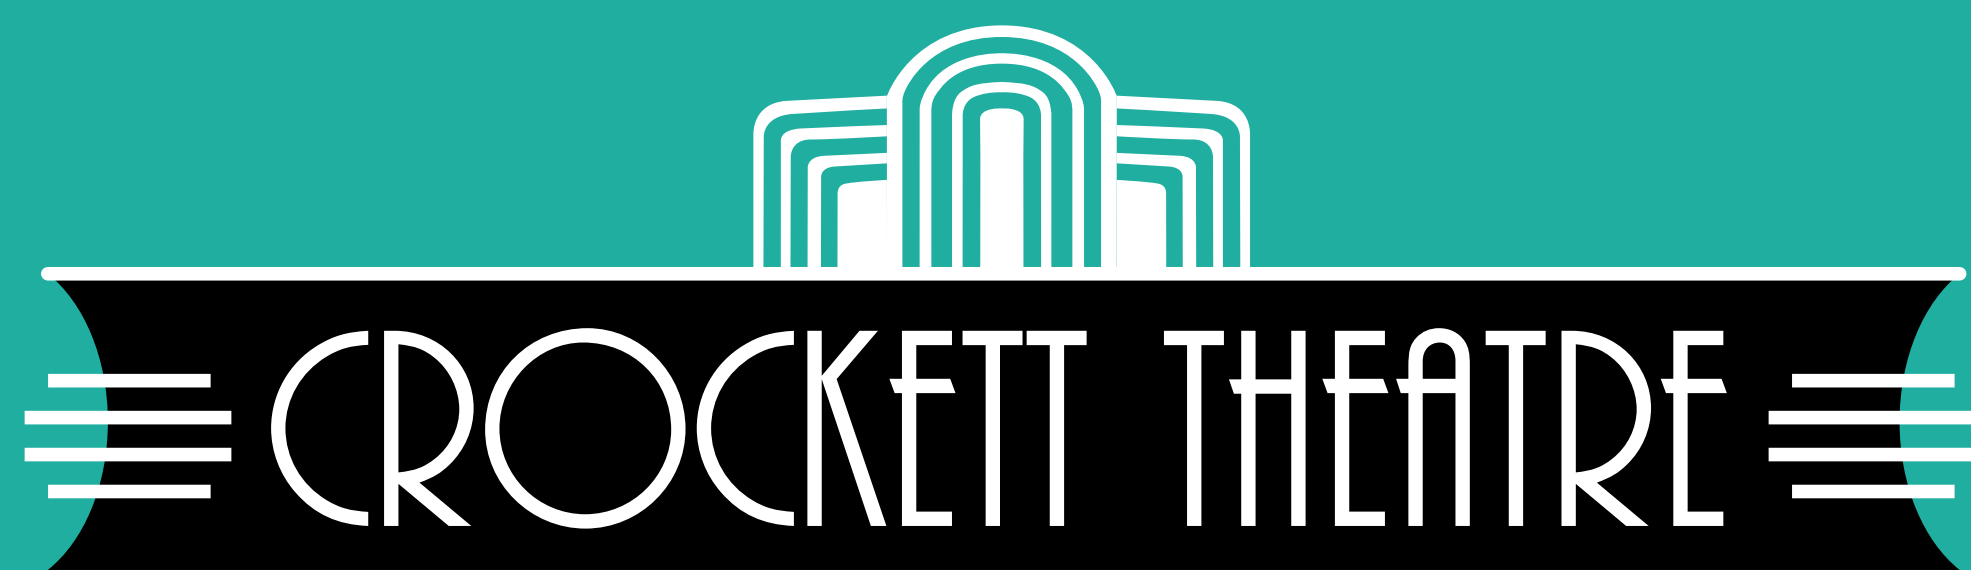

CROCKETT THEATRE

Floyd Cramer's distinctive "slip note" piano style can be heard on the classic songs of countless pop, country, and rock legends. Exemplified by his 1960 smash hit, "Last Date," Floyd's unique touch at the piano was an essential part of the "Nashville Sound" during the 1950s and '60s.

Floyd's "piano magic" is still alive today through the music of his grandson, Jason. Jason Floyd Coleman has played the piano for as long as he can remember. He has spent his career in the studio and on stage, producing a collection of his own albums and performing across the country in concerts that pay tribute to his grandfather's enduring legacy and signature piano style.

MUSCLE SHOALS REVUE

2015
2016 CROCKETT THEATRE

The Muscle Shoals Revue is a soulful celebration of some of the incredible music that came out of Muscle Shoals, Alabama in the 1960s and 70s. The performers who started it all include The Swampers, who were featured in the 2013 documentary "Muscle Shoals, along with original Muscle Shoals Rhythm Section members. The Muscle Shoals Revue will be playing all the hits you know and love.

One verse of the Lynyrd Skynyrd song "Sweet Home Alabama" includes the line "Now Muscle Shoals has got the Swampers/And they've been known to pick a song or two." "The Swampers" referred to in the lyrics are the Muscle Shoals Rhythm Section. These musicians, who crafted the "Muscle Shoals Sound," were inducted into the Alabama Music Hall of Fame in 1995 and into the Musician's Hall Of Fame in 2008. The nickname "The Swampers" was given to the Muscle Shoals Rhythm Section by producer Denny Cordell during a recording session by singer/songwriter Leon Russell, in reference to their 'swampy' sound.
